

Dear Members of the FCC,
I am writing about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force local television stations to broadcast a full-length smear campaign against Senator John Kerry.

If someone wants to make an anti-Kerry movie and give people the choice of going to see it in theaters, that is completely fine. That is what Michael Moore did when he made his anti-George Bush movie Fahrenheit 9-11. However, imagine if Moore owned television stations and forced them to run his movie just days before the election. That is what Sinclair Broadcasting is doing.

I ask you to do everything you can to stop them from airing this smear campaign against Kerry. If they are allowed to run this "documentary," they should be forced to air Fahrenheit 9-11 immediately afterwards.

Thank you for listening,

Sincerely,
Joseph Ziegler
